Terms and conditions for the Namibia Asset Management Limited (NAM) bursary scheme

- Only Namibian citizens may participate in the Namibia Asset Management Limited (NAM) Bursary Scheme.
- Candidates who already have a bursary from another institution will not be considered.
- Note that this bursary cannot be used to pay for existing loans or debts.
- NAM shall offer a bursary for a course as specified per agreement between the company and the beneficiary.
- The beneficiary of the bursary shall be required to repay all costs incurred in the event of premature termination of studies, except in cases where the termination is the result of serious illness. The medical condition has to be confirmed by a medical practitioner and NAM may consider the medical report when considering repayment in these cases. NAM also has the right to refer the candidate to a different medical practitioner for a second opinion, in which case NAM shall pay these costs.
- Ensure that this form is duly signed
- Application forms with incomplete information will be disqualified.
- No faxed application forms will be accepted.
- The extension of the bursary will not be granted automatically, but is subjected to satisfactory fulfilment of the requirements as per the agreement.
